

NYC Minutes

January 16, 2024

- Meeting was called to order at 6:31 pm.
- The quorum was 35/37 at 95%.
- Emma Caylor introduced our guest speaker today, Logan Hudson.
- Logan attended Newnan High School and Georgia Tech for college.
- He joined the “Buzz Team” at Georgia Tech where he could be the mascot.
- He also worked as the mascot Blooper for the Braves, as well as the racing tools, and as Freddie Falcon for the Falcons football team.
- Most recently, he has been learning about aviation and flying planes.
- He advised us to find our passions outside of the classroom and find the right community.
- We talked about the Christmas Social and how everything went.
- Then the judges and elves of the Christmas Parade discussed their experiences and described what could have been done better.
- Rico added an idea for the Christmas Parade that the meeting before the social, we each make a goodie bag to hand out.
- National League of Cities attendees described their experiences at the national conference in Atlanta, GA.
- We reviewed the 2024 NYC calendar which was also sent out in our emails.
- We then voted on which date the Valentine’s Card Creation Night will be. We decided on Tuesday February 6th.
- Anybody attending the capitol trip on Wednesday February 7th needs to let Mr. Mike know and complete the paperwork.
- It was also unanimously decided that any NYC member who does not attend either the Valentines or Capitol trip will no longer be part of the NYC. No exceptions.
- We looked over a proposal to make a letter jacket patch for NYC members. Anna Beth Shelnuttt submitted a possible logo that the patch could have.
- Rico Lane made a motion to create a new patch for letterman jackets which need to be approved through the different high schools.
- We then broke out into committees to discuss new business within the groups.
- The meeting was adjourned at 7:59.
