Weekly Highlights

Municipal Clerks Week

Happy Professional Municipal Clerks Week! This week, Mayor Brady signed a proclamation stating that May 5, 2024 through May 11, 2024 be known as Professional Municipal Clerks Week. Thank you to Megan Shea and all other Municipal Clerks for being the link between the citizens and their governing bodies.

Tour of the Fire Training Facility

On Saturday, the City of Newnan Fire Department hosted a tour of their new training facility and a touch a truck event alongside the Newnan Police Department. Snacks were provided for those who toured the new facility, and participants even had a chance to climb the smoke tower. Thank you to everyone who participated!

Paint Recycling with Keep Newnan Beautiful

Keep Newnan Beautiful held a Paint Recycling event on Saturday. With assistance from the East Coweta High School football team, Keep Newnan Beautiful collected several basins full of unused paint, keeping them out of our local landfills. Thank you to everyone who participated in this beautiful event.

Edgar B. Hollis Distinguished Author Series: Terah Shelton Harris

Newnan Carnegie Library Foundation and the Carnegie Library are proud to welcome author and librarian, Terah Shelton Harris for the book launch of Long After We Are Gone on Tuesday, May 14th at 7:30 pm. This book is an explosive and emotional story of four siblings—each fighting their own personal battle—who return home in the wake of their father's death in order to save their family's home from being sold out from under them, from the author of One Summer in Savannah. The book talk will be followed by a book signing. Doors will open at 7:00 pm. Registration is required on Eventbrite.
