Southern Reptile Rescue

On Thursday, the Newnan Carnegie Library hosted the Southeastern Reptile Rescue as a part of their Summer Children's Programming. The audience spent time with a few of their reptiles and learned a lot about handling reptiles, the difference between poisonous and venomous animals, and the type of fauna we have here in the greater Newnan area. For information about the Newnan Carnegie Library's summer programs and events, visit their website and follow them on all the social media platforms.
