Press Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Mayor Brady appointed to State Workforce Development Board

NEWNAN, Georgia, July 16, 2024 – The City of Newnan today announced the recent appointment of Mayor Keith Brady to the State Workforce Development Board. Governor Brian Kemp appointed Mayor Brady to serve a three-year term of office, succeeding the Honorable Randy Toms.

Mayor Brady shared, “It is an honor to serve the State of Georgia as a member of the State Workforce Development Board. Our technical colleges provide the tools needed for a dynamic workforce. I look forward to serving on the board and making a difference in the lives of Georgians.”

“The State Workforce Development Board (SWDB) is appointed by the Governor and is tasked with administering Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) funds across the state and overseeing the Governor’s state workforce development initiatives. Their guidance is essential to sustaining Georgia’s competitive advantage nationwide in terms of workforce. The SWDB is comprised of business owners, members of the Georgia General Assembly, statewide agency heads, local elected officials, and representatives from other workforce groups.”
