Weekly Highlights

NURA Housing Resource Fair

On Saturday, during Market Day, the Newnan Urban Redevelopment Agency hosted a Housing Resource Fair intended to educate residents about housing related programs. Thank you to everyone who attended and learned more about housing in our community. "We are excited about the potential for this event to expand and better serve our community in the future. At our upcoming meeting, we will evaluate whether to hold the fair annually or biannually to ensure it continues to meet the needs of our residents effectively." Says Andrew Moody, City of Newnan Special Project Manager
The next Newnan Urban Redevelopment Agency meeting is September 19 at 6:00 P.M. in the City Hall Council Chambers.

September 11 Remembrance Ceremony

On Wednesday, the City of Newnan commemorated the 23rd anniversary of September 11, 2001. First responders from both the City of Newnan and Coweta County gathered outside the courthouse to remember the tragedy of the attacks, pray for unity, and give thanks for the United States with a moment of silence and the singing of the National Anthem. Thank you to all who joined us for this solemn reflection.

Terry Singleton Retirement

On Thursday, the City of Newnan celebrated the retirement and 30 years of service of Terry Singleton. Starting with the City of Newnan as a Recycler in the Brush Department in August 1994, Terry transferred to the Beautification Department in April 2004 before being promoted to Beautification Supervisor in 2022. We wish him well on this new chapter of his life!

NURA Housing Resource Fair

Closing out the summer is Grammy award-winning singer, songwriter and guitarist, Kameron Corvet. He has traveled the world opening for the likes of Adele, Chaka Khan, and Marsha Ambrosius. He released his first independent album, "Saying Things" in 2006 and has been a fixture in the indie soul music scene in the U.S. and abroad ever since. Kameron's breakout moment came from composing and co-writing Sting and Shaggy's single "Don't Make Me Wait" which became #1 on the Reggae charts and secured a Grammy award in 2019.
