Rory Hoilman Promoted to Fire Marshal

NEWNAN, GA, February 13, 2026 – The City of Newnan recently announced the promotion of Firefighter Rory Hoilman as the new City Fire Marshal.

Fire Marshal Hoilman began his career in the fire service in 2003. He has served in the City of Newnan Fire Department for three years. “Promoting Rory to Fire Marshal is a significant win for the safety of Newnan,” said Fire Chief Stephen Brown. “With decades of dedicated service, Rory brings a deep understanding of the fire department and a proactive approach to community risk reduction that will serve our citizens well.”

Mr. Hoilman holds several advanced certifications, including a Bachelors Degree in Business Administration. He resides in Newnan with his wife and two children and they enjoy caring for a wide variety of animals on their small hobby farm.
